

Public Records Office Government Records Service Thematic Film Show

Brief introduction on “Housing in Hong Kong in the 1960s and 1970s”

This film consists of the following three clips:

Film/Year: A Race Against People, 1965

Remark: Colour, English

Summary: The film documents the Government resettlement programme. These resettlement areas were well facilitated with “rooftop schools” and “health advice centres”.

Film/Year: Homes for Hong Kong, 1972

Remark: Colour, English

Summary: The film documents the Government housing programmes, including the construction of resettlement blocks, resettlement factory blocks and modern housing estates.

Film/Year: A Place to Live, 1975

Remark: Colour, English

Summary: The film documents the housing in Hong Kong, the development of resettlement areas and the development of new satellite towns, like Kwai Chung and Tuen Mun.

