

Public Records Office
Government Records Service
Thematic Film Show

Brief introduction on “Features of Hong Kong and the New Territories (1960s-70s)”

This film consists of the following three clips:

Film/Year: Another Face of Hong Kong, 1975

Remark: Colour, English

Summary: The film introduces the work of the District Office such as liaising closely with villagers and discussing village affairs with them, and the implementation of the "Small House Policy" in the New Territories in the 1970s

Film/Year: Tomorrow's Land - Hong Kong's New Territories, 1970s

Remark: Colour, English

Summary: The film introduces the development of new towns well-equipped with different social facilities, housing estate, factories and traffic services in the New Territories in the 1970s.

Film/Year: Report to the Gods, 1967

Remark: Colour, English

Summary: Seen through the eyes of Tso Kwan, the kitchen god, the film introduces different facets of Hong Kong life in the 1960s, such as religion, housing, medical services, education and industry, etc. Tso Kwan was played by the well-known Cantonese comedian, LEUNG Sing-Bor.

